Some students and instructors showed off their kung fu and tai chi skills at the Kung Fu & Tai Chi 11th annual celebration on April 25 in the West Campus Amphitheater at AACC. Billy Greer, owner of Jing Ying Institute of Kung Fu & Tai Chi in Annapolis, helped organize the event. Greer is a "shifu," which means master instructor. He has been teaching for five years and following the sport for many years.

Many other classes at AACC incorporated the event into their own curriculum. A video and production class came out to record.

"They had to focus on different sounds, colors and textures," Greer said. Art students came out to sketch activities.

The event was sponsored by the International Students Association. It opened with a reading of a proclamation from the governor. Following were a lion dance and demonstrations of various styles of tai chi, along with workshops.

~ Monique Price

Martial arts masters among us!

• Kung Fu & Tai Chi 11th annual celebration

See pg. 6